

Ritika Pandey

I am a motivated B.Tech Computer Science Engineering student at R.R. Group of Modern Technology, passionate about coding, web development, and real-world problem-solving. With a strong foundation in programming, I have solved 150+ problems across coding platforms like LeetCode and HackerRank, sharpening my logical thinking and algorithmic skills. I'm eager to apply my knowledge in practical projects, collaborate with professionals, and continuously learn and grow in the tech industry. Open to exciting opportunities where I can contribute meaningfully and expand my skill
